Chairperson's Letter

(Tel: 277 5881)

Dear Friends

The weather continues to be very changeable doesn't it? So I am making the most of every nice day. This year the garden is really in a mess! Very colourful - but a mess. We've been away for various family events and holidays so everything has had to fend for itself.

A colourful weed-filled garden. But that's what retirement is sometimes about, isn't it?

The U3A Monthly Meetings continue through the summer season with individual groups deciding for themselves whether and when to take a summer break. So I hope to see you all soon.

Best wishes

Ursula Wild

Wengen 2012:

Apologies for pre-empting the Travel Group Annual Planning Meeting but I know from past experience that a number of people will ask to return to Wengen. Personally I never tire of the mountains and stunning scenery in the Bernese Oberland!

On a recent check of the easyJet website I noticed that the 2012 flights from Luton to Zurich were already on offer so I telephoned all those that I thought might want to go with a date of 16-23 June 2012 and have already booked some flights to ensure we could take advantage of lower prices.

If you are interested in joining the group in Wengen next Summer, then please telephone Jenny as soon as possible on 277 2041.

ANTIQUES WITH CHARLES HANSON

OCTOBER'S MONTHLY MEETING

As well as giving us an insight into the TV programmes and what's currently 'hot' in antiques, Charles will give his expert opinion on a few members' items. We are likely to operate a 'raffle ticket' system to decide which items are to be included in this, so please be thinking about what you might bring. Watch for more details nearer to the time.

FOLK DANCING

Over the summer, we will meet on 22 August and 26 September between 2 and 3.30 pm – just bring comfortable shoes and a sense of humour, please, to our meetings in the Countesthorpe Village Hall.

HAVE YOU CHECKED 'IT' OUT YET?

'IT' is our official website and if you've not already explored it, then don't waste a moment longer – just go to

See also the STOP PRESS on the homepage for up-to-the minute news.

An archive to include recollections from the early days of our U3A, and past Newsletters has been started, and will be an ongoing development. If any member has anything they would like to contribute to the archive, please contact June: E: jhawkins45@talktalk.net or tel: 277 6330.

But be assured that the printed bi-monthly Newsletter and the monthly update 'What's On' (Marketplace) will continue just as usual, though!

SOCIAL OCCASIONS!

Led by Pat Baker, the aim is to provide a range of different social activities at a local venue. Most events cost just £3, and start at 7.30 pm, normally on either a Monday, a Wednesday or a Friday evening in the Concert Room of the Countesthorpe Conservative Club.

Events will recommence in October, once the 'holiday season' is over, so please watch for details of forthcoming 'Social Occasions' in the monthly 'What's On', the Newsletter and on the website.

CHEWS (Controlled Healthy Eating with Support)

This group focuses on healthy eating whilst attempting to lose the odd pound or two! We meet twice a month in each other's houses and each individual records their own particular weight. If weight has been lost or maintained at the same level then the cost is 50p. If, however, weight has been gained, then the cost is £1.00! The meeting ends with discussion over a cup of coffee (no biscuits)!

In June the meeting took a different format; instead of meeting just after 9.00 am we met at lunch time. Each member took their favourite (not-too-naughty) food for lunch, together with the recipe. We enjoyed such items as butternut squash soup, chicken salad with balsamic vinegar, coronation chicken, frittata with vegetables, extra strong cheese with celery, curried salmon with green salad, summer pudding and jelly made with sugar-free jelly and yoghurt. It was a very happy occasion and most of us tried 'a bit of everything'.

If you would like to join, contact Ruth on 277 1533.

WENGEN – 2011

A small (but select!) group of 11 journeyed once again to the Swiss mountain resort of Wengen, perched at 4,100 feet on a sunny plateau above the Lauterbrunnen valley. Half opted for self-catering at the Residence apartment hotel, whilst the others stayed on a 'B&B' basis at the Bernerhof hotel nearby.

We were exceptionally lucky with the weather, waking up to a crystal-clear Alpine morning, with the snowy peaks dazzling in the sunshine. This did not last the whole week, however, but we only had one really wet day – but many of the group were able to dodge the rain, possibly due to the mountains' micro-climates! The fritters, rösti, cheeses and wonderful cakes were as tempting as ever, and the cablecars and mountain trains allowed access to many pleasant footpaths on which to walk off the calories.

It seems that no matter how many times we return, there are always new things to see and do, as well as the old favourites which usually start with the short cable-car ride to the Männlichen and the lovely walk through the flowers at 7,000 feet facing towards the giant snowy peaks of the Eiger, Mönch and Jungfrau with its ending at Kleine Scheidegg and train journey back.

The holiday came to an 'exciting' end when the coach failed to turn up at Lauterbrunnen and the return to Zurich Airport had to be made by train at the last moment. I (who luckily was staying a further week) was still in the travel office buying the tickets when the train moved off carrying the group and their bags! However, the understanding and efficient Swiss railways allowed travel after several texts and phone calls, etc, so all ended well.

Thanks go to Jenny for another splendid and well-organised holiday – she even 'sorted' the weather, as usual!

LETTER TO THE PRIME MINISTER FROM THE GRUMPY OLD FOLK OF ENGLAND!

Dear Mr Cameron

Please find below our suggestion for fixing the UK's economy. Instead of giving billions of pounds to banks that will squander the money on lavish parties and unearned bonuses, use the following plan. You can call it the Patriotic Retirement Plan:

There are about 10 million people over 50 in the work force. Pay them each £1 million severance for early retirement with the following stipulations:

They all MUST . . .

- 1 retire. Ten million job openings - unemployment fixed
- 2 buy a new British car. Ten million cars ordered - car industry fixed
- 3 either buy a house or pay off their mortgage - housing crisis fixed
- 4 send their kids to school/college/university - crime rate fixed
- 5 buy £100 WORTH of alcohol/tobacco a week - and there's your money back in duty/tax etc

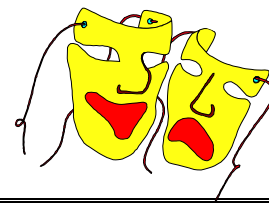

It can't get any easier than that! If more money is needed, have all MPs pay back their falsely claimed expenses and second home allowances.

Also, let's put the pensioners in jail and the criminals in a nursing home. This way the pensioners would have access to showers, hobbies and walks. They'd receive unlimited free prescriptions, dental and medical treatment, wheel chairs etc and they'd receive money instead of paying it out. They would have constant video monitoring, so they could be helped instantly, if they fell, or needed assistance. Bedding would be washed twice a week, and all clothing would be ironed and returned to them. A guard would check on them every 20 minutes and bring their meals and snacks to their cell. They would have family visits in a suite built for that purpose. They would have access to a library, weight room, spiritual counselling, pool and education. Simple clothing, shoes, slippers, PJ's and legal aid would be free, on request. There'd be private, secure rooms for all, with an outdoor exercise yard, with gardens. Each senior could have a PC, a TV, radio and daily phone calls. There would be a board of directors to hear complaints, and the guards would have a code of conduct that would be strictly adhered to.

The criminals would get cold food, be left all alone and unsupervised. Lights off at 8 pm, and showers once a week. They'd live in a tiny room and pay £600.00 per week and have no hope of ever getting out.

(In case you've not seen this, which 'went viral' on the internet recently!)
