PRIVACY POLICY

Countesthorpe U3A requires its members to provide their personal information in order that they can be kept informed about events and activities that are offered as part of their membership. At any time, a member may request to view or modify their data by contacting the Membership Secretary. In collecting, using, storing and processing members' personal information, Countesthorpe U3A will adhere to its "Data Protection Policy and Procedures" (see the Archive section of website or available on request). This policy has been updated and will be regularly reviewed to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation. Countesthorpe U3A will:

1. Store your data securely, and retain it only for as long as it is relevant and appropriate
2. Use your data to communicate with you as a U3A member about events, activities, membership and renewal of membership
3. Share your data with group leaders/convenors for those groups of which you are a member
4. Share your data, on a strictly limited basis, with those outside agencies directly relevant to your U3A activities and membership; eg: airlines/hotels/travel companies (regarding trips and visits) and with HMRC for accounting and gift aid
5. Use your data to communicate with you about specific issues that may have arisen during the course of your membership
6. Use your data to send you general information about the Third Age Trust (the national office to which all U3As are affiliated).

THIRD AGE MATTERS

Please note that your membership automatically entitles you to receive copies of the Third Age Trust publication "Third Age Matters". In signing the declaration, you consent to your details being added to the direct mailing information for this publication. If, in the future, you wish to remove your name from this mailing list then please notify the Membership Secretary.
